HACK876 × BARITA FOUNDATION

PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP PROPOSAL

Tomorrow's leaders, building today.

Hack876 is a free day in Kingston for students from 5th Form to Upper 6th, many at their first hackathon. Campion College and Hillel Academy are confirmed, and volunteer judges who work at Tesla, Microsoft, Meta and Google will see what the teams build.

WHAT HACK876 IS

A one-day build competition in Kingston for about 80 secondary-school students, 5th Form through Upper 6th Form, working in teams of 3 to 4. Teams pick a real problem and finish the day with a working prototype and a pitch to judges.

When: Saturday, February 20, 2027 (tentative)

Where: Spanish Court Hotel, Kingston (confirmed)

Who: About 80 students, roughly 20 teams

Organisers: Nadani Dixon and Stefen Ewers

WHY THE BARITA FOUNDATION

Education and youth development is one of the Barita Foundation's three pillars, and its scholarships support Jamaican students at CSEC and CAPE level.[1]

WHAT WE ARE ASKING

Support for Hack876 toward the student programme on the day, with the option of the Foundation's name on the Learn track prize.

WHAT IT MAKES POSSIBLE

A free day of hands-on learning for about 80 students from 5th Form to Upper 6th, many at their first hackathon: mentoring, materials, meals and the running of the day.

WHAT THE BARITA FOUNDATION RECEIVES

The Foundation's logo on hack876.com and on stage, a thank-you in the programme, a feature on Instagram @hack876ja, and a recap with photos.

THE NEXT STEP

A reply on whether the Foundation would support Hack876, and whether it would like its name on the Learn track prize.

01 WHY THE BARITA FOUNDATION

Education, opportunity and access.

Hack876 turns education, opportunity and access into one free day: students build real technology, and many find out for the first time that they can.

BARITA FOUNDATION

> "Building the future is the bedrock of Barita's vision. That means more than wealth. It means education, opportunity and access to the resources that make it all possible."[1]

Education and youth development is one of the Foundation's three pillars, alongside entrepreneurship and health and wellbeing.[1]

Its scholarships support Jamaican students at PEP, CSEC, CAPE, early childhood and tertiary level.[1]

In 2024 it awarded J$9.5 million in scholarships and bursaries, from more than 220 applications.[4]

WHAT THE FOUNDATION ALREADY BACKS

AUGUST 2022

A first cohort.

23 scholarships and 10 bursaries at the Foundation's first scholarship ceremony.[2]

2023

44 scholars.

34 full scholarships and 10 bursaries for the 2023/24 school year.[3]

2024

Over 220 applications.

J$9.5 million in scholarships and bursaries.[4]

2025

A new UWI scholarship.

The Paul Simpson Scholarship: J$5 million for three Chancellor Hall students at UWI Mona over five years.[5]

02 OUR REQUEST

J$300,000 toward a free day of learning by building.

J$300,000 EDUCATION SUPPORT · INAUGURAL HACK876

J$300,000 helps support a free day of hands-on learning for students from 5th Form to Upper 6th, alongside P237 Labs, Lev Beauty, Vault Motors, Norus Technologies and Frankies. As an option, the Learn track prize could carry the Barita Foundation's name. The Learn track asks teams to rethink how people learn, from CSEC revision that doesn't feel like revision to tools for teachers. The judging panel still decides the winner.

WHAT IT HELPS SUPPORT

- Programming. Helps support mentoring, judging and the student programme.
- Materials. Contributes toward participant materials and supplies.
- Student meals. Contributes toward meals and refreshments on the day.
- The event overall. Used where it helps the students most.

WHAT THE BARITA FOUNDATION WOULD RECEIVE

- Logo on hack876.com and on stage
- A thank-you in the event programme
- A feature on Instagram, @hack876ja
- A post-event recap with photos
- Optional: the Foundation's name on the Learn track prize
