How Campion teachers can support students.

Hack 876 is a one-day competition for about 80 secondary-school students from several schools. In teams of 3 to 4, students build a solution to a real problem and present it to judges who work in technology and business. Campion is not asked to pay, host or organize anything.

HOW TO SHARE IT AND RECOMMEND STUDENTS

1. Share hack876.com/schools/campion or the student flyer with students in 5th Form through Upper 6th Form.
2. If you would like to recommend particular students, give their names to the faculty liaison. No form is needed.
3. Each student completes the application on the Hack 876 website. Teachers do not apply on their behalf.
4. The Hack 876 organizing team selects participants and contacts students and families directly.

STUDENTS WHO ARE A GOOD FIT

- Curious students who like making things, in any subject.
- Students taking Computer Science, IT, Maths, the Sciences, Art, Design or Business.
- Strong writers, presenters, organizers and researchers, as well as programmers.
- Students who work well with people they have just met.

FACULTY LIAISON

Mrs. Keisha Morrison

Head of the Technology Department · Campion College

Mrs. Morrison is the point of contact at Campion for Hack 876. Teachers can pass recommendations and questions to her, and she coordinates with the Hack 876 organizing team.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS

Campion is expected to have two ambassadors, ideally one in Lower Sixth and one in Fifth Form. They have not been chosen yet, and their names will not be published without permission.

- Share the Hack 876 flyer and hack876.com/schools/campion with classmates.
- Encourage eligible students to apply.
- Point classmates to hack876.com/schools/campion when they have questions.
- Pass on questions they cannot answer to the faculty liaison.

Roughly 8 to 12 Campion students. This is the organizers' planning estimate, not a quota. Every student applies individually, and a recommendation does not guarantee a place.

Mrs. Morrison's role is at department level. Formal approval from Campion College's administration has not yet been confirmed, and student places are not guaranteed.
