How Wolmer's Girls' teachers can support students.

Hack 876 is a one-day competition for about 80 secondary-school students from several schools. In teams of 3 to 4, students build a solution to a real problem and present it to judges who work in technology and business. Wolmer's Girls' is not asked to pay, host or organize anything.

WHEN
Saturday 20 February 2027

WHERE
Spanish Court Hotel, 1 St Lucia Avenue, Kingston 5, Jamaica

HOURS
8:00 AM to 7:30 PM, Jamaica time (UTC-5). One day, not overnight.

WHO
Students in 5th Form through Upper 6th Form

HOW TO SHARE IT WITH STUDENTS

1. Share hack876.com/schools/wolmers-girls or the student flyer with students in 5th Form through Upper 6th Form.
2. Point interested students to the registration link on MLH. They register themselves: no nomination or school form is needed.
3. Each student registers on MLH with a free MyMLH account. Teachers do not register on their behalf.
4. The Hack 876 organizing team contacts registered students and families directly, including about the consent form.

STUDENTS WHO ARE A GOOD FIT

- Curious students who like making things, in any subject.
- Students taking Computer Science, Information Technology, Maths, the Sciences, Art, Design or Business.
- Strong writers, presenters, organizers and researchers, as well as programmers.
- Students who work well with people they have just met.

FACULTY LIAISON

To be confirmed

Faculty liaison

Wolmer's Girls' School has not yet named a faculty liaison for Hack 876. Until it does, teachers can send questions to the organizing team.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS

Student ambassadors have not been nominated yet. Their names will not be published without permission.

- Tell eligible classmates about Hack 876.
- Share the link to hack876.com/schools/wolmers-girls, the QR code and the approved graphics and messages.
- Answer simple questions using hack876.com/schools/wolmers-girls.
- Pass on anything you are not sure about to the Hack 876 organizing team.
- Remind classmates to register early, because places are limited.

No school has a quota. Every student registers individually on MLH; there is no nomination step.

Wolmer's Girls' School has confirmed its participation. Every student still registers individually on MLH, and places are limited.
